

JUDI CARMONA

Judi Carmona was first elected to the PYLUSD Board of Education in November 2010. A graduate of California State University, Chico, Mrs. Carmona earned a bachelor of arts in political science. She also holds a special education teaching credential and earned a Master of Science in Education from California State University, Fullerton.

Mrs. Carmona's professional experience includes service as a PYLUSD special education teacher as well as an Intervention Instructional Specialist for the PYLUSD Professional Development Academy and has co-authored six books for general and special education teachers. During her tenure in the PYLUSD, Mrs. Carmona was selected as the 2004 PYLUSD Teacher of the Year. Additional professional experience includes personnel and employment management at Capwell's and St. Joseph's Hospital of Orange.

A resident of Yorba Linda since 1987, Mrs. Carmona has been joyfully married to her husband, Howard, for 35 years. The Carmonas have two sons who attended Travis Ranch School and Esperanza High School. Keith is currently the principal at Kraemer Middle School. He and his wife, Melanie, who serves as principal at Mabel Paine Elementary School, have one daughter, Natalie. Their son Mark is a successful businessman, residing in Costa Mesa.

Term Expires: November 2020