BOARD REPORT

1. Mrs. Karin Freeman attended the Yorba Linda State of the City Breakfast and indicated the City is very excited about progress on the new high school. Mrs. Freeman also shared that Michael Worley, Deputy Superintendent of the North Orange County Regional Occupational Program, recently finished his doctorate; that she had received information from St. Jude Hospital regarding their program entitled "Tar Wars" that targets late elementary children regarding abstinence from smoking. Mrs. Freeman thoroughly enjoyed the District's Annual Band Pageant and was also pleased to have visited Glenview Elementary School and looks forward to visiting other district schools soon.
2. Dr. Craig Olson enjoyed the Yorba Linda State of the City Breakfast and Program and indicated he recently had opportunity to meet with Karen Delaney and Jim Moore regarding curriculum ideas and resources that might be useful in the PYLUSD.

3. Mrs. Carol Downey attended the Placentia Chamber Breakfast and indicated the presentation by Assemblyman Mike Duvall was very informative. She also expressed an interest in visiting a second-grade classroom along with other Board members subsequent to installation of the new "smart boards" in the spring of 2008. In response to Mrs. Downey's inquiry, Bob Blackney, Director of Technology, provided a brief overview of the selection process for teachers receiving "smart boards" for their classrooms.
4. Mrs. Jan Wagner commended Dr. Dennis Smith, Superintendent, and Doug Domene, Assistant Superintendent of Executive Services, regarding their leadership during the recent California wildfires. She was also very supportive of the Orange County school superintendents who reached consensus to suspend all athletic activities at all Orange County public K-12 schools. Mrs. Wagner was pleased to have attended the Orange County Athletic Directors Dinner and greatly enjoyed the performance of our wonderful student musicians at the District's Annual Band Pageant.
